ROYAL COLLEGE OF CHEMISTRY,

FOUNDED BY DR. MUSPRATT, F.R.S., IN 1848.

LIVERPOOL, April 27th 1857

Dear Sir.

Private

I see enumerous scientific matter in the Athenæum today, which appears in the papers. I hope, ~~I thought that~~ as you have been always desirous to know our position that you would observe by noting S. Medlock's important scientific discovery. I write you to give a few lines belonging the path I shall pursue. Yours truly

Redwood Muspratt

Chemistry, in all its branches, is taught daily in the College, between the hours of 10 and 5; and Analyses and Assays of every kind are conducted on reasonable terms.

Printed lists of terms or fees may be had on application.

Did you see the Athenæum this week page 536

DSI

Where last week you alluded in your columns to a gentleman in this town getting L.L.D. from America. Was it from Clinton?
It appears from the Athenæum there is no such place
